THE HON'BLE Ms. JUSTICE G. ROHINI

WRIT PETITION No.27020 OF 1995

ORAL ORDER:

The writ petition is filed seeking a declaration that the action of the respondents in stopping and detaining the vehicles on which the petitioner-Company was carrying cotton seed on behalf of its principal as arbitrary and illegal.

A batch of writ petitions involving an identical question was considered by a Division Bench of this Court in Narayana Rao & Sons v. Govt. of A. P[1]. The Division Bench while holding that market fee is payable on cotton seed, which is item No.38 in Schedule-II to the A.P. Agricultural (Produce & Live Stock) Markets Act, 1966, dismissed all the writ petitions.

The question involved in this writ petition is squarely covered by the above decision of the Division Bench.

Accordingly, following the decision of the Division Bench in Narayana Rao & Sons v. Govt. of A. P (1 supra), the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.

(G. ROHINI).
